

THE PROVIDENCE POST

Providence Church - an Evangelical Presbyterian Church congregation
Located on the Haywood Christian Academy senior campus - 1400 Old Clyde Road, Clyde

November 2017

Set clocks back 1 hour
at 2 a.m. November 5th

November is the month of Thanksgiving. What are you thankful for? For me faith, family and friends come to mind. The Bible says that without faith it is impossible to please God. And the Bible also tells us that faith is a gift from God. Have you received that? Someone once likened faith to a blank check with your name on it--you must act on it by receiving it and "cashing" it. How do you cash your faith? With your heart and your lips. You receive Christ into your life through the life-giving Spirit and you confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Secondly, I am thankful for family--not just the beautiful family that I was born into and raised up in, but also the family of God's people, the church. If our parents had not made the choice to bring us into this world we would never have existed. Likewise, if Christ had not adopted you and me into His family we would not know the joy of being in Him and living for Him. Finally, I am thankful for friends, for relationships with people who enrich my life and bring me joy. In good times and bad times. Because a struggle shared is halved, and a joy shared is doubled! I pray that you will live in gratitude during this season and indeed, your whole life, because of God's lavish love for you and me.

Session Highlights

The Pastor's Report - After celebrating our 10 year anniversary as a church, which included prayer and fasting, Pastor Edward asked if the session had felt the Holy Spirit revealing anything to them about the next 10 years. Recurring themes were: God is with us, we should remain faithful and continue doing what we are doing, but doing everything better.

Edward asked the elders to let him know if anyone from our nurture groups might be interested in joining the church.

There will be a Fall prayer gathering on Sunday evening,

- continued on next page -

Providence Happenings

October 22nd from 6:30 to 7:30 PM in the Sanctuary. The focus will be Andrew Brunson and the persecuted church. The session gave approval.

Edward applauded the Dinner for 8 groups, noting it is an excellent time to make connections with other members, encouraging the elders to invite their nurture groups into fellowship.

Edward announced the preaching of Lance Lawrence on October 29th and of Julian Bacon on November 26th in his absence.

Diaconate Report - Jeffery Alt announced Rick Boen had resigned from the diaconate. Luke Allsbrook lead us in prayer for both Rick and Kay Boen. The session, along with the diaconate, gratefully acknowledged Rick's service as deacon.

Mission Committee Report - Phil Inglis announced L@nce and Lis@ L-wrence, missionaries in Jordan, would be coming October 29th to teach SS and L@nce would be preaching at worship. A potluck will follow.

The Mission Committee budget was presented by Phil Inglis. Monies were reallocated to those local ministries who do kingdom building. An increase of support was given to missionaries reaching out to muslims. The budget was received as presented.

Youth and Family Report - Luke Allsbrook announced a nursery worker, Brianne Wood, has been hired beginning October 15th. Her hiring was approved by common consent.

Nominating Committee - Bruce Kingshill - A Motion to set the date for the Congregational Meeting on December 3rd was made by Luke Allsbrook, seconded by Bob Dresdow and passed. Jeffery Alt recommended announcements seeking elder and eacon nominations be made every week at worship, along with inclusion in the bulletin.

OCC OPPORTUNITIES:

Operation Christmas Child is an opportunity to bring the good news of the gospel of Christ to children around the world. While the boxes we pack are filled with hygiene items, a toy and school supplies, the most important gifts we send are our prayers and an opportunity for children and their communities to receive a pamphlet, The Greatest Journey, and the discipleship program associated with it. Long before shoe boxes arrive in more than 100 countries, volunteer National Leadership Teams train pastors and community leaders who want to share the message of the Gospel and bless children. The leaders learn how to host child-friendly outreach events, and how to implement The Greatest Journey follow-up discipleship program which impact whole communities with the transforming message of salvation through Christ.

Important DON'T send items: As of 2017, do NOT include any CANDY or TOOTHPASTE!! As always war related toys, liquids, food items or breakable items should not be included.

Important DO send items: School supplies (paper, pens, pencils), hygiene items (toothbrush, soap, comb, sewing kit), a toy (stuffed animal, doll, cars, soccer ball and pump, flashlight etc) and $9 per box to cover the cost of the discipleship program and shipping.

Important DATES:

Shoe box Packing Party- Thursday November 9th at 1:00 pm at T.J.Anthony's home. Please RSVP to TJ or Barb.

Shoe box Collection day at Providence: Sunday November 19th

Shoe box Distribution Center Charlotte NC work day- Wednesday Dec 6 for 10:00 am- 4:00 pm. Limited to 23 people. RSVP to Renee Mitchell.

Hi, my name is Brianne Wood and I will be working in the nursery. I am a Junior at Pisgah High School and will be 17 in November. My family moved here from Orlando, Florida when I was a baby, so I have grown up in Canton. I have a younger sister and an older brother. I love to read and learn foreign languages (I am currently studying French and Spanish in school). I am very excited to be working in the nursery and getting to know everyone!

Mission News

From the email of Ge-rge and Cyn-thia P

We are currently in our old apartment and have it cleaned up enough to live in for now until we can find a new apartment. We will be looking at two more apartments today and we are praying that we will find the right apartment that will allow us to set up a spare bedroom for Cynthia's art lessons.

Thank-you for praying also for our health. God has been so good! Cynthia's shoulder and back and head are all feeling free of pain. We are so thankful to God. As I have been for some time, I am free of pain but I do still go to bed fairly early and often need about a one hour nap in the afternoon. This continues to improve though and hopefully by the end of one year following the end of my chemo I will be all the way back to normal.

We are so thankful for your prayers and support! Please pray that we will be allowed to stay and that we will do a good job of learning the language and being bold to speak.

October 2017 Engaging the Displaced Update

Doors continue to open with Engaging the Displaced among refugees in Germany. Sandra has had some wonderful opportunities to cultivate relationships with the women here, many of whom are isolated and unable to effectively assimilate into culture here. I have had some chances to meet with men (who, as you know, seem to be less aware of their need for interaction) to work on German with them and we both see many opportunities to share the True love with them. Part of our joy is working together as a family... including the boys when the schedule permits.... There is still great uncertainty here about permission to stay, especially among the non-Syrians. We know several Afghan and Iraqi families that are awaiting their fate and could still be sent back to unsafe areas. There is a significant gap between the function of the government here in the 'macro' and the individual stories that desperately need to be heard.

We have had quite a ride the last ten days or so with three visitors from the US who came to see the work the Lord has provided for us here. Stephen Kelley from the ETC (who happens to be our immediate supervisor) came to spend some time with us and lend his insight into the work here. It was amazing to watch the faces of the refugees when they realized that he was interacting with them in Arabic. He had some excellent conversations with our Syrian and Iraqi friends. We were also privileged to have two pastors from Washington state here for a week or so. Their insight and wisdom mixed with some wonderful fellowship and shared experiences made for a joyful and edifying visit.

I will be leaving in a few days to help serve in one of the ETC training courses in Spain. We covet your prayers for this and our lives and calling here. Thank you for investing in this vital mission to refugees. Love in His peace, the McKays

Prayer/Praise:

- we have an exciting new development in the works!
- we all four need local believing friends
- relationships continue to develop
- we still need more monthly support

Contributions are processed via e-check or credit card through www.epc.org/donate (there is a drop-down menu for you to find us by name or location...Germany). Checks can be mailed to the Evangelical Presbyterian Church (PLEASE NOTE THE NEW ADDRESS!) 5850 T G Lee Blvd., Orlando, Florida 32822. Please include our name on the line and account # 343.
